This used to be our favorite place to go. They apparently changed the menu. They have old fashioned french toast on the menu but you don't get the thin white bread. Very disappointed and staff was not accomodating. read more. If you're desiring some spicy South American gastronomy, you're in the right place: exquisite dishes, made with fish, sea creatures, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, and you can look forward to typical tasty French cuisine. In case you want to have breakfast, a hearty brunch is offered to you, The visitors of the establishment also appreciate the extensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer.
