I would like to rate it better, but I find it hit and miss. One time it's great, the next time not so much. I really think it depends on who is cooking. I rate places on Reubens and biscuits and gravy. Both can be awesome. But I've also gotten inedible biscuits and a Reuben that wasn't anything close to correct. If they can get around inconsistency, it could be one of the best places around. But this has gone on for... read more. I really wish I could give a better review because the waitress was so sweet but the food just won't allow it. I got the egg and French toast combo. The bacon was so-so, the sausage links tasted like those super cheap brown and serve ones you buy at the Dollar Tree and the eggs were bland, which eggs usually are. The French toast was very undercooked and soggy with raw egg. It's unfortunate as the atmosphere is open... read more.
