An exquisite dinner and perfect evening in Columbus for a traveler who wants to experience the local taste. The chef spoke to us personally and even adapted a recipe for my friend's allergy. I don't usually command a cat, but I thought I should try because it's a local specialty. It was perfectly cooked, like the rest of my meal. The bread was also unbelievable so the city is lucky that part of the restaurant will so... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What Kim Harrison doesn't like about J Broussard's:

Food is fair, but the management oozes liberalism and shuns anyone with different political and ethical views. Too many good southern restaurants near by to spend my money here. read more. At J Broussard's from Columbus you have the opportunity to enjoy delicious vegetarian meals, in which no trace of animal meat or fish was processed, The magical desserts of the establishment also shine not only in the eyes of our little guests. Even South American fresh fish, meat, as well as beans and rice are grilled here, and you have the opportunity to try scrumptious American dishes like Burger or Barbecue.
