What User likes about The Codfather, Proper Fish Chips: wow, almost like being back in london. will return and recommend when they try in the opposite way the muddy brooms so that they say they did and slather on the Malz-Vinger makes it pop! I wish I had starved so I could eat more. also the difference in full and half is the ounce of fish not 1 2 how to think stupid Americans. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about The Codfather, Proper Fish Chips:

Always enjoy the fish at CodFather. During my recent visit I noticed the prices have gone up (like most places I'm sure) yet again, but the cod fillet also got smaller. Hard to see one average size fillet being worth $8 (with nothing else). Can get an entire meal with sides at other places for $8. $12 if you want fish and chips, but no drink. The chips (fries for us non-English types) are good, but certainly not the... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Codfather, Proper Fish Chips in North Charleston traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle, Also, you shouldn't miss out on the delicious pizza, original freshly baked in a wood oven. You can still relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you may look forward to the fine traditional seafood cuisine.
