This is one of my favorite breakfast places. I go here with my girlfriend from time to time. It's really simple and small but the vibe is just right. Expectations are realistic, prices are totally reasonable and I always enjoy my meal. We had a tuna sandwich and Ashley's Special 2 for lunch. (Well brunch) service is always quick. The only suggestion I would have is that they really should take payments at the table.... read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What Jevon Deckow doesn't like about Ashley's:

Me and some friends are fans of dining at places that we can't find at home. Unfortunately our experience here was less than stellar. The staff forgot a lot of things and took very long to get with us. The saving grace was that the food was great. To be fair this place looked very understaffed but for what its worth I would try this place again for the food alone. read more.
