Saturday night at Elaine. It was crowded, but we could immediately get a table outside (I think there is only outside the food unless there is bad weather) and our server, Ashley brought us menus to sit within a minute of us. Drinks were super- recommend the prickly pear margarita! Our server recommended the bacon wrapped Scallops watermelon salad as appetizers - both delicious!! Our party of 6 all had different entr... What User doesn't like about Elaine's Cape May:

This was one of the worst breakfast dining experiences I've ever had in my whole existence. There was a hair in my omelette and the food was equivalent to an 8 year olds amateur cooking. I asked for my home fries well done and they came out mushy and soggy. My water cup was a little baby plastic cup filled with ice and it only gave me 2 sips. There was nothing fine about this dining at all. Be prepared to be confront... read more.
