Saw all the great reviews, so decided to try it and glad I did! The Singapore Chicken Chow Fun was great and very authentic. The Chicken Satay was also good, but portion size felt small. $10 felt steep for a portion of size closer to $6. The tea itself from the Boba tea was good. Boba wasn't pleasant, not chewing as expected, but seemed to break a bit into the drink. Owner was warm and friendly. Would definitely go b... read more. What

Doua Houangvanh doesn't like about Satay 2 Go:

This place was on our way to an event we were attending so figured we'd pick up reasonably priced food. BEWARE OF REVIEWS!!! This establishment deserves nothing better than a 2 star review. The food was over salted and indeed tasted reheated. I was leery about kitchen practices when then they refused to allow us use of the bathroom after we had to wait longer for a wrong order. By this time, we had paid our bill and... read more. With a large selection of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat, the Satay 2 Go from Apple Valley prepares easy-to-digest, fine Japanese meals, there are also tasty vegetarian meals on the menu. In Korea, Korean meals such as Kimchi, Bibimbap and Jjigae are considered typical and have a special place on the menu card and the tables of the visitors, Moreover, one can find an excellent selection of different Malaysian national dishes such as Wantan, Roti, Naan and also Ayam on the menu.
