Not bad. We went to dinner, sat right away. We ordered a big jacket, 5 reels and a seaweed salad, our total number was just about $100 including tips (they automatically add 18% Gratity to your check). I wish it was a little cleaner. We asked for small plates and both had greasy spots, looks like they just flushed them and didn't wash properly. The same thing with our table was not well cleaned. Rolls weren't bad, bu... In agreement with the rating that this place is quite good for a hibachi restaurant, but still not AMAZING. Your experience strongly depends on how good a cook you have; Our chef was fine, but we saw some of the other parties in the restaurant with the time of your life. The food was decent, but you get a lot for the money. Our server was super though- thanks Carlos! read more. For those who want to have a drink after work and sit with friends or alone, Lil Tokyo from Myrtle Beach is a good bar, among the delicacies of this establishment are especially the Maki and Te-Maki. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Lil Tokyo. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known dishes too ordinary can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients taste, on the daily specials there are also a lot of Asian dishes.
