They have a fair amount of outdoor seating which is great on Main Street. This time I had the corned beef and hash with over easy eggs and my wife had French onion soup, delicious. They have the expected selection of Irish beers on draft. Service is always friendly and prompt. If you want solid Irish fair, Castaway is it. read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What Brett Sabbato doesn't like about Castlebay Irish Pub:

Great food, poor beer selection for a place that has 'pub' in its name. I order bangers and mash which were good. Could have used more gravy and the addition of mushrooms. Beer wasn't ice cold, and the selection was less than I had expected. Overall, this place isn't something to write home over, but will do if you're looking for quality food in Annapolis on a busy weekend night. read more. You can at Castlebay Irish Pub from Annapolis enjoy delicious vegetarian dishes, in which no animal meat or fish was brought into play, And of course, you should also try the scrumptious burgers, with sides such as fries, salads, or wedges provided.
