I left last night, it was very close to the closing time. It was not important for the staff they would like to fill out my order at the time. Very helpful, friendly, close and fast. I'm definitely back. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Taco John's:
When I went through Taco John's a couple of weeks ago, on the 14th to be exact. I received the incorrect order and did not realize it till I got home here in Terry. So I called and spoke to a very nice gentleman and we got everything straightened out and he told me next time I come to town they would give me the correct order with no charge. So I did that yesterday, but the gal that gave me free correct order was ver... read more.
