We just had the best experience at Popeyes in Herriman. The chicken and food was hot and served fast... AND the staff gave us the best service I wish I knew their names but the front line staff were so attentive to all customers during such a busy dinner rush. They were friendly and fun to interact with with as well while still focusing on fast service. In times of today often fast food restaurants have lost the servic... read more. What

User doesn't like about Popeyes Louisiana Kitchen:

Food is always pretty good, but I've had very inconsistent experiences with the wait times here. Once they had my bag of food in hand as I handed them my card, but then another time it took a full 20 minutes when I was the only person in the store. I mean come on dude all I got was a chicken sandwich, I see the rack of 15 of them sitting there ready to serve. Food quality is pretty consistent though. read more.
