What User likes about Harding's Family: Great experience and definitely those so to rest and eat on long trips. The varied menu was suitable for all 11 people of our party. The food was good and the service was divine. They made us all welcome. Nice little shop for kitchy things. And great prices for food and storage products. The decor was also very nice, I would recommend to look at the restaurant. read more. What User doesn't like about Harding's Family: 3 because the service we received was 5 but the food was a 1. No bad prices safe so it made better. The fish I had was not good, the tarter sauce tasted funny and the Koleslaw was terrible. Maybe the way the Koleslaw was done, but I didn't care about it. The Pommies were really good. The chicken pliers were some of the worst I ever had. I'm not a picky person and I'm going to eat almost everything, but would have passed on to this. Should you wish to sample delightful American menus like burgers or barbecue, then Harding's Family in Charleston is the ideal place for you, here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast. Here they also grill South American fresh seafood, meat, as well as corn and potatoes, the restaurant serves but also menus from the European context.
