I haven't been to hooter for years, but during a job trip I needed something that was late open. it was in mn on Monday night and the Vikings played. the televisions were loud and the beer was cold. perfect place to see a football game. I started with a summer handy because the blue moon cock was out. I ordered 10 original wings with medium sauce and curly fries. the bartender wasn't the kindest, but she did the job.... User doesn't like about Hooters:

we do not stop here very often. In general we think it is a pleasure to sit down and have a pitcher or two and some appetizers. the service was not so great tonight, and the restaurant of my opinion was cabinets. many waste went along the bar we had to stare for our entire culinary experience. our initial bartender took our order and we waited well 10 minutes before we even got our beer. after that a new bartender en...
