I got to say after looking for almost 3 years for really good fried rice that has the aroma of a hot wok and flavors of green onions- this place was a perfect fit. The quality, quantity and freshness were all there! I would recommend this place to all my friends and family as it did not disappoint. It closed to dine-in but that allows them to focus on creating exceptional take-outs! read more. What Tatyana Williams doesn't like about New York Lovers Chinese:

I drove 20 minutes to this place because they make dark fried rice and I remember liking them when I lived closer a few years ago. Order was incorrect. I ordered shrimp fried rice and got pork fried rice (the one fried rice I never order) I asked for extra egg and to leave scallions just no white onion. The rice only had 1 egg on top no egg in the rest of the rice and no scallions either. Too late to drive all the way... read more.
