I've had the pleasure of having lunch from here a couple of times, and have never been disappointed! My personal favorites are the goat curry and chilli chicken! The staff is kind. The meat is tender. The flavors are always well balanced. I believe that you can taste the love that is put into cooking every meal. I can not wait to eat here again! 10 out of 10 would recommend! Indian Bistro:

I don't know how to rate this. The folks inside are always very nice and the food is tasty and you get a good amount of it. But, the facility is nasty, nasty, nasty. Close your eyes and imagine you are in another country at a local restaurant with lower standards and you might accept it without any complaint. But here in Texas,? I would think the health department would at least ask them to store boxes off the ground a... read more.
