the coffee cottage is a must to visit for their coffee wishes and bakery needs. the personal is over and over friendly. if in calabash is ever over, I promise they won't regret it. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is complimentary WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What Jab Parrilla doesn't like about Coffee Cottage: The Coffee Cottage is cute inside. Barista was helpful making coffee recommendations. My chocolate coffee drink was rich and creamy like a dessert coffee. The bakery looked good but it did not taste that good. The blueberry muffin was like gas station quality. The chocolate almond bar was flavorless. The store didn't have a way for me to wash my hands, no restroom. The outdoor chairs has bird poop on them. read more. For breakfast, a diverse brunch is offered at Coffee Cottage in Calabash that you can sample according to your mood, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and varied assortment of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try. Not to be overlooked is also the extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
