The Menu of Happy Time from El Cajon includes about 17 different dishes and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $13.5. What Paul G likes about Happy Time:

Have purchased food from Happy Time a number of times, we're big fans of their catering trays for family events, and I have never been disappointed. The quality of the food is excellent, always easy to order and the staff are friendly when you go to it pick up. The Family Feast trays always come with chicken tikka, beef kebabs, grilled veggies, aromatic rice, a shawarma wrap and a breaded chicken fillet, plus sides I... read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is complimentary WLAN. If the weather conditions are right, you can also be served outside. What Theresa Ann F doesn't like about Happy Time:

Their chicken kabob is excellent, unfortunately their service isn't great. My husband second time experience for ordering foods is very upsetting. He went there yesterday, business usually open at 12:00 noon, the employees make him waited for half an hour to take his order and they accommodate more of the phone calls order than him. My husband gave up waiting, and came home very upset. Hope the owner will pay attentio... read more. If you crave for afters, Happy Time with its delicious desserts can easily make an end of it, well digestible Mediterranean meals are also on the menu. You have a big birthday party and want to enjoy the food at your place? With the in-house catering service, that's easily doable, Customers often choose the scrumptious, fluffy flatbread, which is perfect for dunking into the homemade hummus or a creamy yogurt dip; the captivating connection of figs and goat cheese undeniably also belongs to the best dishes of the multifaceted Middle Eastern cuisine.
