My family and I are from Midland. We went to Texan kitchen and clearly gave the tourist atmosphere. We were kindly greeted by a tribe called Miss Linda. She was a sweetheart and told us we'd sit down somewhere and that the waitress really quickly went to the kitchen. We sat and our waitress, V, welcomed us. She was such a treasure and took care of us. Our family loved the café immediately because of the small town of... read more. If you're hungry some spicy South American gastronomy, you're in the right place: exquisite menus, roasted with fish, sea creatures, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu. In the morning they serve a tasty breakfast here. Of course, we must not forget the extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties in this locale. Naturally, you should also taste the fine burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges served.
