The brisket was delicious as always, but the chips were missing when my order was delivered. I called Firehouse, and the lady I spoke with apologized and said it was their fault for not putting them in the bag. She was very nice about it and took responsibility which is rare these days. I said I'd run over and pick them up, and she had a bag prepared with the chips and Rice Krispie treats and a cookie for the kids. I... read more. What Pam D doesn't like about

Firehouse Subs Nicholasville:

Well they first couldn't find our order in the system. They finally did but hadn't even started on it. We did a pickup order but every time we done it there has been a problem. They forgot the pickle and the food wasn't hot. read more.
