What User likes about The Olde Richmond Inn: Unique space for the area, definitely higher than the middle of the nowhere Indiana would beat. The prices reflect aesthetics, and the quality of food is almost completely worth it. I almost say because the Entrées, all three for our party, were excellent. The table bread sticks and typically throw away zeasarsalat were also impressively fresh and tasty. But none of us were happy with the desserts. About the board th... read more.
