What User likes about Claverach Farm: that's a family lover now. we went to 3 farm dinners (as vegetarians/builders) in 3 different seasons and are so enthusiastic with this operation! we want to get back! the concept is perfectly executed, even if we have experienced various chefs during visits. during autumn and winter the darkness, but if you can go in summer, you can also get a beautiful small tour of the area. we didn't find it hard to drive. I also... read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What Katherine S doesn't like about Claverach Farm:

Food was great, but our experience was absolutely awful. There was a large party that arrived drunk, and behaved like they were at a college fraternity party yelling at each other, whistling, name calling and threatening to fight other guests who requested they tone it down. Management looked the other way, and when asked, indicated that having large, badly behaved drunken groups was not an unusual occurrence. Pretty... read more.
