My wife and I visit Kura Sushi in the week often for a quick fixation, and we highly recommend it! The quality of the sushi is ideal for the price, and the rotating conveyor belt gives the dining experience a funny element. A tip that we have is to download their app that allows you to participate in the waiting list before arrival. This is particularly helpful because waiting times can be quite long, even up to 3 ho... What User doesn't like about Kula Revolving Sushi:

Only OK- fills the itch for if I want sushi and my favorite places are closed. The staff is always nice, but you really get what you pay here (although prices have risen in recent years). During my last visit I noticed that my favorite items (ikura and takoyaki) were both taken from the menu, so probably not going here anymore, but they still have tons of different menu choices. - Comfortable parking-accepts CC-Use i...
