What User likes about Shabuya: Before they open, it's a must. Half an hour before, there is already a line. You have a tablet where you can book a table that is beautiful. You can book a bit and go to the mall. The selection was amazing. Meat, vegetables, sauce... The lunch special is very affordable given the diversity they offer. They were quick to fill the soup when they thought it was low. I enjoyed enormously!! 4 stars because I had to ask my... read more. What cindy amimer doesn't like about Shabuya:

It's a truly hot restaurant. I went there twice: one in the morning by 10:30am before the restaurant opened at 11am. Surprisingly, there was already a long lineup at the entrance. The second time I went was a Sunday evening by 7:30pm. A large crowd was waiting outside the restaurant while the restaurant had a full house. We waited and waited until the restaurant closed at 10pm. read more. The Shabuya originating from Honolulu dishes out various fine seafood meals, it's possible to chill out at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Shabuya. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known meals too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients consume, and it's made with lots of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat, easily digestible Japanese meals prepared.
