Really close to a 5 star, just a little lacking from a plant point of view. Service was good and food was decent. You had quite everything you would want from a seafood standpoint. Food wasn't entirely your 5 star seafood, but for a buffet it was better than expected. We loved the crab legs... no, they are not the monster species crab legs, but they were well cooked and of decent size. You can eat everything you want... read more. What Larry Abney

doesn't like about Captain Jim's Seafood Buffet:

As a non seafood lover, it was okay for what they had. That's certainly understandable since it's a seafood restaurant. Now for the rest of my family who loved seafood, (especially crab) this is where you want to go. It's hard to find crab on a buffet anywhere so when you do, you go. They loved it and would have gone back if we had more time. read more. For those who want to a beer after work and hang out with friends, Captain Jim's Seafood Buffet from Pigeon Forge is a good bar, and you can try delicious American meals like Burger or Barbecue. Here they also grill South American fresh fish, meat, as well as beans and rice, Furthermore, the drinks list in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and comprehensive diversity of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try.
