Consistent with their quality. Service is commendable. One of the few best Chinese restaurants in the area that serves well-fried rice. The egg-Foo-Junge was fresh, light and yet filled and beautifully flavored. Pork dumplings in peanut sauce is a unique dish here that is not sold in most Chinese restaurants. read more. What User doesn't like about Empire Hunan:

Was here yesterday with a friend. We got szechuan dumplings that were heavy peanuts, although this was not mentioned somewhere on the menu. You should be sharp, too, but not. The dough was soggy and when we sliced into it liquid they were clearly frozen and heated again. Our networks were not very good either. I have the cashew chicken that was different than any cashew chicken I've ever had somewhere else and not ve... read more.
