The best and most interesting food in the city could no longer recommend. The menu is not only creative to be creative, the dishes are mouth pouring well every time. The staff is knowledgeable and friendly. The ambience is fun with something funky (love the vinyl!) . Chef Suzi (owner knocks it out of the park. When you come to Newburyport, make this your first stop, whether for brunch, lunch, dinner. read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also be served outside, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Richard Marc doesn't like about The Paddle Inn:

Rude Selective service. The female bartender with the hair is obnoxiously rude and should find a job that isn't customer service. Seems like all the negative reviews revolve around her, even at her previous places of employment. Many horrible experiences with her and usually avoid going there if she's working. Lots of drinking behind the bar. read more. The Paddle Inn from Newburyport is a suitable bar to a drink after work, and sit with friends or alone, In the morning a hearty brunch is offered here. It goes without saying that a suitable drink completes a meal; therefore this gastropub provides a sophisticated selection of delicious and regional alcoholic options, be it beer or wine, There are also nice South American menus in the menu.
