I really enjoyed the food. I ordered lunch. The soup had a very good taste. The pad Thai, order it without vegetables and hot, was quite delicious. The server was very nice and attentive. I will definitely come back when I visit San Antonio again. read more. What User doesn't like about Thai House 2:

The place looks way less romantic than on the pictures here. Menu with only names and explanations without pictures is not for me. Bullion which they bring for all customers chicken broth was the tastiest thing that I had there (a bit too much salt also thou). Lunch menu was not impressive, portion was way too big for one person and full with sugar, I hate when I have to leave 3/4 of a meal on a plate. They are unders... read more. If you crave for tasty snacks, Thai House 2 with its magical desserts can easily make an end of it. Furthermore, the customers love the creative combination of different menus with new and partially experimental ingredients - a good example of successful Asian Fusion. The dishes are prepared typically Asian, Thai meals are prepared here with the popular spices and fish sauces.
