I was on a trip from the Sequoia National Park and I was looking for a place to eat before the 4 hours trip home. Domino was close, but I had the feeling that this place would be fantastic. Great place for hangouts with friends, the food was amazing (a lot better than just getting something from pizza hut and leaving without enjoying the city), and the staff was very cool and polite. If I ever come back to see Missio... read more. What User doesn't like about Pizza Solo:

I was extremely excited to order Pizza Solo for an office lunch after having it at Farmers Market. Pizza Solo is my go to meal when I attend Farmers. My initial interaction was good, I called the night before my work event and the gentleman on the phone was very polite. He instructed me that it would be best to call back in the morning. Because they don't open until 11am and it was a large order that would need to be... read more.
