What User likes about Wassabi On Fire:

Overall, this place is really good and has a cool atmosphere. There are some places in Fresno and Clovis that are a little better. The banishment of the utensils at the beginning was loud above the tip. My ear rang all night when I came home. Apart from that, I would say that the experience was quite funny. We all had a good meal and a great time. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Wassabi On Fire:

I brought my sister to the law to try Sushi for the first time in California, we both went to Wasabi for all the hype we had heard. The food tasted ok. not tasted good, only barely average. During the last bite I look at the sushi I see a hair. Absolutely horrified and disgusted. I know it's not my hair because it was cured in the role as if the cook specifically took the hair from his scalp to put it in the role. Un... read more. If you want to spoil your palate with a bit of culinary flair, this is the place to be: The imaginative Asian fusion cuisine of the Wassabi On Fire from Fresno - a delicious mix of the familiar and the unexpected, fine particularly are the Sashimi and specialties like Sashimi that this restaurant is known for. menus are prepared typically in the Asian style, and it's made with lots of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat, easily digestible Japanese meals prepared.
