Find great uptown! We stayed for a walk around Uptown after dinner at the delicious Nixon Steakhouse and discovered La Monarca. Have some delicious wedding cookies and polvorenos dug (they may go with another name here cinnamon cookies and a slice of delicious dark chocolate cake. The cake was light and fluffy, which was perfect and not too sweet. Many and many traditional Mexican sweets, (bread pan, coffee, drinks a... read more. You can use the WiFi of the place free of charge, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about La Monarca Bakery:

So sad that I have to leave this review because I LOVE this place, but the man who worked the register this morning, 12/08/22, turned me away because I had my little dog in my arms. I wanted to tell him I wanted to order, but he ignored me. The institution should rethink its servants. I'm so glad Mimo? The cafe next door could serve me delicious food and a latte. You're great!
