What a refreshing experience. Food for me is all about flavor and authenticity, and can find both of hem right here. It 's unfortunately so easy and common to find some ok/middle of the road Mexican restaurant, who do not give any credit to this very flavorful cuisine. But here, from the pozole, to the barbacoa enchiladas, and the tamale just to mention few of the items we had for lunch, everything was right on. I ha... read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is complimentary WLAN. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat outside. What

Scott Meyer doesn't like about Frida's:

Food was pretty tasty and good-size portions. Staff is drab, non-smiling and seem bored. Asked our server 3 times fie extra napkins and more chips before they arrived. How about this item on our bill... No Shrimp $5.00. Apparently, they are at least upfront about charging for items that you did not order. read more. For guests of the establishment, the catering service is also available, Especially, many guests are looking forward to the diverse, fine Mexican cuisine. The eatery provides a diverse diversity of spicy tapas, which are without a doubt worth a sample, At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
