One of the few places I can go for gluten and dairy free food. I love the seafood and the fries. I also love that it's a family run business. This is a full-service sit down restaurant with a small floor, so be patient. The food is cooked fresh by order. read more.

Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Matthew Stewart doesn't like about The Lost Cajun Highlands Ranch:

I used to really like this place. However, when COVID hit, they pared their menu way down. This limited menu seems to be here to stay, and it just doesn't have a lot on it that I want. I recently ordered their catfish, which comes fried. I asked if they could blacken it instead of frying it (which they used to do), but now they can no longer do this. I might be wrong about this, but that implies to me that the food is... read more.
