My family and I love this place. We recently dined-in for lunch and the food was so much better then take out even though takeout is still very good. If you decide to dine in, you seat yourself and someone will be right with you. Due to rising cost of food, chips and salsa is now a small cost. Service is great and the dining area is very well kept. Other customers before us leave and they immediately run to tables an... read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What Amy Makynen doesn't like about Taqueria El Amigo 3:

The food is very bland and dry. We tried to give this place one more chance but everything lacks flavor and sauces. Don't get the breakfast burritos! The scrambled eggs are just scrambled soup! Look forward to the diverse, delicious Mexican cuisine, traditionally prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), For a snack in between, the delicious sandwiches, small salads, and other snacks are suitable. You have a big birthday party and want to enjoy the food at home? With the in-house catering service, that's easily doable, here they serve a appetizing brunch for breakfast.
