What Sarah D likes about Via Vecchia: We had a lovely early dinner on New Year's Day. We arrived right at 4 when they opened and they were able to seat us immediately without a reservation. The food was fantastic (risotto and squid-ink pasta, a special for the day, were cooked perfectly), cocktails inventive and well-balanced, service was spot-on and the the vibe was quaint, but fresh and sexy. Definitely recommend and will be back! read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather, and there is no-charge WiFi. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Jeremy Yowell doesn't like about Via Vecchia:

Unfortunately, our experience was heavily impacted by our orders never being entered into Via Vecchia's system, which resulted in us waiting over an hour until the waitress figured out the problem. Once we actually got our food everything was fine but not particularly impressive. The interior and exterior decorations were very nice though and I enjoyed the drinks we tried. read more. The joint spoils you with a bit of this and a bit of that with their popular Tapas, and you can look forward to authentic Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta. You have a party and want to enjoy the food at your place? With the in-house catering service, that's easily doable, You shouldn't miss the opportunity to try the delicate pizza, baked straight out of the oven in an original manner.
