I love their service and I love their food I've been going there at least about 51 years and pray to God continue to bless them and their families and friends in Jesus name amen read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What TastingTattler B doesn't like about West Fortune Fish Market:

The food here is of poor quality, the dinners are prepared from frozen fish and the grease that it's fried in was old. The fresh fish display counter is in disarray. Some of the fish are not fully emerged in ice and it looked like they were simply thrown in the case and not displayed or packed properly. I noticed that most of the customers were minorities and as usual the Asian owners do not care to provide quality s... read more.
