Great place to stop for some coffee and pastries. Be sure to check signs in the pastry box for what's sold out since it's always a full look with the display pastries. Depending on how busy they are, could be a wait if only one person is working. There are some sitting options but not a lot inside. Not sure if the outdoor seating for the neighboring restaurant can be used but if can be, there's a lot. read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. WLAN is available free of charge. What Jocelyn Daniels doesn't like about Mah-ze-dahr:

Calorie refund please... The staff were excellent, very friendly and kind! The food unfortunately didn't live up to expectations. We went based on a high review, and it was fine-ish, and the portions were decent, but it all tasted like airport baked goods. The pain au chocolate was quite tough and chewy, without the chocolate well baked into it. The cheddar and chive scone was not flavorful or dense. It tasted bitter if... read more.
