We stopped here for lunch while on our way to Southern Colorado. We've been by here a few times and it's always seemed to be crowded and this time was no different. We were able to quickly get seated. The place seemed to be very family-friendly and inviting. The staff was nice and friendly. We ordered the burrito which was very delicious and full of flavor. The menu selection seems to be an endless variety of great look... read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area.
