The Pho is authentic Vietnamese. Very delicious and serving is great. The Bon Mi sandwich was not a fan. It certainly did not meet my expectations. I'd stay with the Pho soup when I come back. The sandwich had good taste, but it wasn't worth $8.00. It was basically grilled chicken on bread. I have no idea what the sauce was on it because there is no description on the menu online, but everything seems to be Vietnamese... read more. Freshly harvested mint, crunchy salad, sprouts and a few drops of lime combined with rice noodles and meat - all of this can be found not only during your vacation in Vietnam on the plate, but also when visiting the nearby Saigon Pho in East Hanover, Besides, the successful blend of different dishes with new and sometimes adventurous products is appreciated by the visitors - a good case of Asian Fusion. The preparation of the dishes is done typically Asian, there are also fine vegetarian dishes in the menu.
