My husband and I were from the state in town. We were late in town and had a hard time finding a place that is still open. We came about an hour before graduation. We had no hurry. Our server was very busy taking care of a huge section. She remained quiet and professional, although we could say that it was probably a very long day for her. We appreciate their kindness. We were in town to comfort our aunt after the su... read more. With original
