Had the good fortune of finding this bakery early in our week long stay in the Bar Harbor and Acadia National Park area. We were able to try almost everything over multiple visits. It was all exceptional. Blueberry pie, whoopie pies, the sweet or savory croissants, cinnamon rolls, donuts, cake slices, elephant ears, scones. Don't leave without a coffee to wash it all down. Robin has something very special going on at... read more. What

Aaron Williams doesn't like about Sugar Bakery:

The pastries were just okay. I ordered a croissant and they asked customers in front of me if they wanted theirs warmed up and did not give me that option; it would have been much better warm. Also, a man in front of me had a large order and added to it twice after paying, thus cutting in front of me and everyone behind me. read more.

At Sugar Bakery from Trenton it's possible to try delicious vegetarian courses, that were made without any animal meat or fish, In addition, the charming desserts of the restaurant shine not only in the eyes of the little guests. You can also relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Also, the guests of the restaurant love the comprehensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer.
