Dosa Place is a hidden gem and the exterior looks humble. The owner was friendly, attentive and introduced their signature dishes to us with patience. The options on the menu were various but they ran out of lots of ingredients when we arrived at a late lunch time. We ended up getting their Cheese Dosa with Masala to share and our favorite Indian donut Gulab Jamun as dessert. The dosa was fried crispy and matched wit... read more. I had high expectations from few reviews here. Trust me it's no where close to authentic taste. Idli's were deadly, medu vada was soaked in oil and sour, masala dosa was sour due to over fermentation, sheera (sweet) was pathetic. The accompaniments such as sambar and chutney were not tasty. The sambar did not resemble anything like sambar, it was just boiled lentils. read more.
