I'd come back for another sandwich! Ordered a few sandwiches... everything tasted great. For the size of the sandwich and taste... it was VERY reasonably priced. Bread was a little thick and since not toasted it sort of fell apart midway through. They serve the sandwiches on wax paper directed on the table with no utensils so be ready for a delicious messy meal. Place was busy for lunch... most of the tables in and o... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather. What Kalvin K doesn't like about Ham Sandwich:

Definitely a Pittsburgh staple with super tasty and affordable sandwiches! Everything was piled high and delicious. The fried fish sandwich was amazing. Service here on the other hand is quite atrocious. Either they were understaffed or the servers weren't very good that night, it took about 15 minutes for me to be greeted upon sitting down. Downright unacceptable. It's a shame, the food is so good! Maybe need to try... read more.
