Yummy ice cream with lots of interesting flavors! They also had some great looking chocolate and hard candy. We waited in a long line, but the staff worked quickly to move people through. There was limited seating inside, but luckily we got a table. There were lots of people sitting in creative places outside. We have one lactose intolerant person in our party of 9 and they only had one dairy-free option (raspberry s... read more. What pookatunie doesn't like about Matts Homemade Alabama Ice Cream:

We walked in and looked over the ice cream some cartons were gummy(old) and some had ice crystals. We found 2 flavors that looked fresh and were ready to buy, but the young man mopping the floor made no effort to even speak to us. After about 5 minutes in there, we left. As with another shop in the area, it was expensive and they have the nerve to upcharge for a grocery store cone. read more.
