What Yu WU likes about Coyle's Bakeshop: Nice and popular bakery in Greenwood with a decent offering of baked goods and coffee. I had their butter croissant, and I loved it despite the smaller than normal size. It has a very flaky crust and beautiful layers, one of the best ones I had in Seattle. I also tried the croissant dough pretzel and mini kouign amann, both have a stronger salty flavor and I love that. Prices are fair and service was friendly. There... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What C K doesn't like about Coyle's Bakeshop: Always great except once I had a rhubarb danish on a Sunday afternoon that was rotten. I ate a quarter then threw it out. I think someone needs to check freshness. read more. The extensive range of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Coyle's Bakeshop. In the morning a versatile brunch is offered here. You can just get one of the delicious sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, if you're not that ravenous, there are also delectable vegetarian meals in the menu.
