Japanese Steakhouse Sushi:

Like almost all the other negative reviews, the service is bad. Monday night-45 minutes to be seated-15 minutes more to get my drink. So, one hour in and I finally got my drink. No hibachi chef in sight, grill still cold, and I might have waited to see how bad it was going to be out of sick curiosity. However, three kids that were stoned out of their minds and smelled like they swam in the bong water were seated next... read more. Traditional meals are prepared in the kitchen of Osaka Japanese Steakhouse Sushi in Hot Springs National Park with original Asian spices scrumptious, tasty vegetarian recipes are also on the menu available. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat are used to cook healthy Japanese dishes.
