We were really excited to try this place out and support a local business during this really difficult time. But the couple running the restaurant, while cooking and serving food, were not wearing masks. And there was no encouraging or set up for socially distancing inside. I don't care how good your food tastes (can't say cause I haven't tried it), but if you don't care about keeping your customers safe that's reall... read more.
