The shouk veggie burger was delicious, all the flavors of the veggies in there came through very strongly. The pita had a wonderful soft, almost crepe-like texture, and the shkoug sauce I added to it was also delicious (just wished I had more of it because it was pretty tiny and I ran out quickly). My girlfriend got the falafel pita and was very happy with it. She just wished it was a little cheaper given that the pi... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, and there is no-charge WiFi. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Sar id \(MyMobile\) doesn't like about Shouk:

Very disappointing to say the least. Received cold falafel balls and had to ask for a fresh batch. After about 10 minutes received overly overcooked falafel balls fried in rancid oil. Unedible. The malabi was good but way overpriced. Bottom line look for your Mediterranean fix somewhere else. read more. Shouk from Washington is popular for its exquisite burgers, to which crunchy fries, salads and other sides are offered, delectable vegetarian dishes are also on the menu available. Would you rather enjoy the food at home or on a special occasion like a ceremony? Thanks to the in-house catering, that's no problem, The visitors also rave about the fine, airy flatbread that can be dipped into the own hummus or a yoghurt dip; the exciting combination of figs with goat cheese is also one of the favorites from the diverse cuisine of the Middle East.
