I think the location is great, the one in St. Petersburg I visit has fantastic employees and staff, that are always friendly and happy. I eat the food at least twice a week as some casual dining. I recommend any of the combinations that you can dream of because they've made it almost impossible to find one that doesn't taste good! Hats off to one of the best taco places on Central Avenue! The chips are usually about the best around. Unfortunately, today I got two orders, even during off peak hours with no other customers even in the store, half of the chips were undercooked and half overcooked! Very disappointing.
