I am so thankful to have a coffee shop within walking distance of my work- and an excellent coffee shop at that. The atmosphere is great but I was far more impressed by how accommodating the Baristas there are. I've never had the option of espresso roasts anywhere in North Idaho- here I do. The Guatemalan is fantastic. read more.

The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What Drew S doesn't like about Coeur D'alene Coffee Co:

Probably more like a 3.5. This local coffee stop has a cool big city vibe with a lot of personality. The patio is amazing. I had a breakfast burrito that was seriously delicious. My cappuccino was okay, but was kind of thrown together. The prices are fair. The service was somewhere in the middle, not great but not horrible. I would try it again. read more. The comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Coeur d'Alene Coffee Co even more worthwhile, and you can look forward to traditional Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta. If you decide to come for breakfast, a tasty brunch is ready for you, In addition, the sweet desserts of the establishment shine not only in the eyes of the little guests.
