What User likes about Joe's Shanghai: Long wait outside while we waited for our ticket to be called and beware, they only take cash so no credit or debit cards. But it was well worth the wait. The xiao long bao were delicious. The beef in orange was tender chunks of beef that just fell apart and delivered an really tasty mouthful. Wheelchair accessibility: Probably not a good place for wheelchairs because the gap between tables is not enough. It's pretty s... read more. What john c doesn't like about Joe's Shanghai:

We took our parents to dinner today. The front desk gave us a number and told us to wait. When our number was called, we were taken into the restaurant to share a table with other people. It turned out that we only had a seat for 2 people, and they drove us out and asked us to line up again. , I went to the front desk and asked her what was going on, she replied that I meant 2 people, do you think it's a bit of a bus...
